EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI)

Bengal Silicon Valley Tech Hub is futuristic hub, developed by West Bengal Housing Infrastructure Development Corporation Limited (A Govt. of West Bengal Undertaking), that will catalyze the emerging tech ecosystem in the state. It is expected to be home to MNCs, start-ups, incubators, investors, all working on deep innovation in technology and tech-enabled business applications/models with a global footprint with the specific goal of signaling the broader tech ecosystem (in India and globally) to actively consider Kolkata as an attractive technology hub in India.
